5 Your privacy rights

This section explains how your information is used, shared and protected. It also explains how you can access your personal information.

Your information is collected under the authority of the Department of Employment and Social Development Act, the Canada Education Savings Act and the Income Tax Act for the administration of education savings incentives. We collect the Social Insurance Number (SIN) under the authority of the Canada Education Savings Act. The subscriber and joint subscriber SINs will be used as the primary identifier for the purpose of processing the transfer.

Submitting this form is voluntary. However, we will be unable to process the transfer of RESP assets if you do not provide the required information.

Your information may be used by and shared between the following parties for the administration of the Canada Education Savings Act and the Income Tax Act: ESDC, the Canada Revenue Agency, the trustee, RESP promoters and their agents.

Information may also be disclosed to Statistics Canada for research and statistical purposes. However, this additional use will never result in an administrative decision being made about you.

You have the right to the protection of, access to, and correction of your personal information. Your information is described in the personal information bank ESDC PPU 506 Canada Education Savings Program. Instructions for obtaining this information are outlined in the government publication, Information about Programs and Information Holdings, which is available online at: canada.ca/en/treasury-board-secretariat/services/access-information-privacy/access-information/information-about-programs-information-holdings. The publication is accessible online at any Service Canada Centre.

You have the right to file a complaint with the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding ESDC's handling of your information at priv.gc.ca/en/report-a-concern.

6 Definitions

These definitions are provided for your information only and do not constitute the legal definitions. In the event of a discrepancy, the legal definitions found in the Income Tax Act or the Canada Education Savings Act shall prevail.

Beneficiary: Usually a child, but can be any person named by the subscriber of an RESP.

Brother or sister: A brother or sister in relation to a beneficiary includes a son/daughter of the common-law partner or spouse of a parent of the beneficiary.

Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG): Includes a basic amount of CESG (Basic CESG) and may include an additional amount of CESG (Additional CESG).

- Basic CESG is a payment of 20% on the first $2,500 of annual RESP contributions made on behalf of an eligible beneficiary, up until the end of the calendar year in which the beneficiary turns 17.
- Additional CESG is an additional payment of either 10% or 20% on the first $500 of annual RESP contributions made on or after January 1, 2005, on behalf of an eligible beneficiary, up until the end of the calendar year in which the beneficiary turns 17 years old.

Notional Account: For tracking purposes, a separate account that identifies the value of each monetary component of the RESP, including contributions, earnings, CESG, CLB and BCTESG. RESP notional accounts are the theoretical value of an RESP, which may not reflect the actual value of plan assets.

Receiving promoter: means the RESP promoter, as agent of the trustee, who will be receiving the transferred assets (in cash or in kind) from the relinquishing promoter.

Relinquishing promoter: means the RESP promoter, as agent of the trustee, who will be sending the transferred assets (in cash or in kind) to the receiving promoter.
